Task Information

Important idea(s) being explored:	A discussion essay allows the responder to examine how composers use characters and themes to teach the reader.
Skills, Knowledge and understanding being demonstrated:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding of text • Understanding of characterisation and how themes are developed • Essay writing skills • Understand appropriate structural and language conventions
Task Requirements:	You will plan, compose and edit a discussion essay over three periods using the following topic: What do composers want to teach the reader through their use of characters and themes? Your discussion essay should use the appropriate structural and language conventions and contain specific textual evidence from the novel you studied in class. You should use the PEEL process to compose each paragraph. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You will be given THREE class lessons for this task. • Time (to be advised by your teacher) will be allocated to plan your discussion using notes from your workbook. During this time, you may write dot points and quotes on your scaffold. • You will then be given the remaining class time to write and edit your discussion essay using only your completed scaffold for guidance. Your teacher will collect your work at the end of each lesson. Students must bring their own class notes for the planning period.
Syllabus Outcomes:	EN4-1A - responds to and composes texts for understanding, interpretation, critical analysis, imaginative expression and pleasure EN4-3B – uses and describes language forms, features and structures of texts appropriate to a range of purposes, audiences and contexts EN4-5C – thinks imaginatively, creatively, interpretively and critically about information, ideas and arguments to respond to and compose texts All English assessment tasks are due at the beginning of the English period on the due date. Students are responsible for ensuring that the task is ready to be submitted and/or completed at the beginning of the period. Students are strongly advised to hand write or print the task (where applicable) the day before the task is due. Students are strongly advised to email their teacher a copy of any task with an ICT component (where applicable) the day before the task is due. A transcript of any oral presentation must be submitted on the due date at the beginning of the English period. Tasks will not be accepted without a completed Cover Sheet attached. Any student who is absent from the English period on the due date of an assessment task must have a medical certificate covering the absence and any subsequent periods of absence. The medical certificate and task must be submitted to the Head Teacher of English on the first day back from absence and the student must complete the task as directed.
